

Think about this before the 2 week visit...

Whooping Cough: We also recommend that all household contacts of babies under 12 months of age get the Tdap vaccine (Tetanus/diphtheria/acellular pertussis) to protect the baby from whooping cough. Your primary care provider can administer it and bill your insurance, or we can administer it today or at the 2 week visit for $81.00.